Andrew Dutka

MARKET #500 DIRECTOR, NORTHEAST

Based in New York, Andrew Dutka recently celebrated a one-year anniversary on the Lori's team. What excites Andrew most about his work is the opportunity to bring out the best in people and watch them grow and develop in their role. He said, "Leading has always been a strength of mine through building trust and creating an environment where individuals feel empowered to utilize their strengths. I thrive on developing talent through motivation, inspiration and creating opportunities for others to grow."

Andrew said his strengths come from connecting with people, communication and aligning teams around a shared vision while making sure everyone feels valued and appreciated. When people ask him where he works, Andrew tells them it's a place where you get to bring joy to someone's life every day. He loves working at Lori's Gifts because every day it gives him the chance to make an impact, not just on the business, but on the individuals he leads each day.
